

Keynote Speaker: Corrinne Armour CSP

Corrinne Armour CSP is Australia's leading thinker in Fearless Leadership®. Entertaining, provocative, and inspiring, she blends contemporary brain science with powerful storytelling to bring leadership to life and move people to action.

With more than 20 years working in and out of boardrooms alongside senior leaders, over a decade in senior corporate leadership roles, and two years living and teaching in a refugee camp in the jungle on the edge of a warzone, Corrinne brings deep, lived insight to her work. This unique combination enables her to connect powerfully with leaders navigating complexity, pressure, and competing priorities — because she understands first-hand what leadership demands when the stakes are high.

A Certified Speaking Professional (CSP), Corrinne has been industry recognised for her experience and professional capability among Australia's leading speakers. She is the author of Leaders Who Ask and Developing Direct Reports, as well as two specialist texts on human behaviour used globally.

Through her keynote speaking, books, and leadership development programs, Corrinne challenges leaders to elevate their performance by engaging in the conversations that matter most — the ones that build trust, unlock thinking, and move people and organisations forward.

Known for her warmth, energy, and practical insight, Corrinne leaves audiences motivated, focused, and ready to lead more fearlessly.

Corrinne's Topics

Fearless Leadership®

Untapped potential. Taking action in times of challenge

When leaders feel overwhelmed by urgency, uncertainty, and pressure, fear can take the wheel. Fearless leaders don't wait for certainty - they act with purpose, connection, and trust. Blending neuroscience, real-world leadership insight, and compelling stories—from a jungle refugee camp to unexpected mentors—Corrinne reveals how to recognise fear and lead through it. This keynote inspires everyone—from senior leaders to emerging professionals—to step up, lead when it matters, and unlock their untapped potential.

This keynote will show your people how to:

- Move from fearful to fearless to take courageous action
- Build connection as a leadership strategy to create impact
- Cultivate trust to accelerate team performance
- Lead with purpose to inspire and empower others
- Develop their own fearless leadership mindset

Ideal for all audiences – everyone can gain from Fearless Leadership.

Creating Fearless Cultures

Lead with curiosity. Influence with questions. Spark performance.

True leadership requires a new and innovative approach. In a fast-paced world, where complexity and uncertainty reign, leaders often feel the pressure to have all the answers. Yet, the most powerful leaders don't tell more—they ask more. Backed by brain science, Corrinne reveals how asking the right questions builds stronger connections, engagement, and accountability. Leaders at all levels will learn to connect deeply and influence effectively, sparking a fearless culture of creativity and collaboration that drives performance.

In this keynote your leaders will discover how to:

- Adopt an explorer's mindset to drive curiosity and innovation
- Ask better questions to engage and empower teams to get the right things done
- Cultivate psychological safety for fearless conversations
- Strengthen leadership impact by shifting from answers to inquiry
- Build a culture of accountability and shared ownership through intentional questioning

Ideal for audiences of leaders or aspiring leaders.

The 12 Leadership Derailers
